

Leading Forward

Dr. Brett Jacobsen, President

The math between the power vectors of each corner defines the plausible future. Any change in one corner will have an impact on the entire triangle.

Mission/Vision

Is it clear? Is it compelling?

Values

Do people know and live the values?

Leadership

Are roles and responsibilities clear at every level?

Strategy

How do we win?

- Is it simple? That is, is it easy for everyone to understand, explain, and act upon?
- Is it scalable? Can it grow with your school without requiring a complete overhaul?
- Is it sustainable? Does it have the structure, support, and energy behind it to be maintained over time?

Tactics

Do your people know what to do?

Structure

Do you have the right people, systems, and capital?
